

Overture

Derdian

People of Naxar
Though I' m here to regenerate your lands
I am your master
And I'll need all the power of my friends!

Living and Fighting Together
Living and Fighting Forever
Living and Fighting Wherever
I am one with all your souls

Under the rage of my fire
I will transform your desires
And I'll increase all my powers
With the aid of my own God

I'm the evil
I can feel you
I'm the demon of the night
You can fight me
And despise me
But your destiny is signed

Re-establishing this poise
We can rule the world!
Now I want to hear your voice
Follow me and my sword

Living and Fighting Together
Living and Fighting Forever
Living and Fighting Wherever
I am one with all your souls

Under the rage of my fire
I will transform your desires
And I'll increase all my powers
With the aid of my own God

Re-establishing this poise
We can rule the world!
Now I want to hear your voice
Follow me and my sword

We will return after solving this annoyance
Dark clouds of war are now gathering on my land
