

Strange Journey

Derdian

I am sure I've lost the way
Through the dark maze of my mind
Like a demon in disguise
It's the price I have to pay
Nothing now can take a form
i see the music with my eyes
Since the time when I was born
That was my sacrifice
I never found a way to go
Wherever I may fly
Wherever I may die
A melody I'll find
In every single word
In every place I'm going
In every moment that will seem so long

I'm traveling
Between the dark and light
It seems to be alright
I'm traveling my past life
And will continue

Traveling I see some shadows there
The end is near, I bet
The sharp sound of my steps
Is touched on by the rain
This life won't be in vain

I don't know if I'll be scared
All my fears will leave me in harmony
With every emotions

Maybe I should take my time
Waiting till I feel the pain
Trying to write some good rhymes
Who can stop this rain?

I never found a way to go
Wherever I may fly
Wherever I may die
A melody I'll find
In every single word
In every place I'm going
In every moment that will seem so long

Now the door's unlocked
I'm looking from a window
There's a mother holding tight her child

All my dreams are broken
Climbing weeping willows
I feel I could go insane

Now the door's unlocked
