

Nothing (Without You)

Derek Webb

I've got the dress, I've got the ring
I've got a song that I can sing
I've got the bread, I've got the wine
But I've got the life I've left behind
I've got everything, but I've got nothing
Without you

I've got the law on my heart
I've got your love tearing me apart
I've got a vow that I can't keep
But I've got your promise getting me to sleep
I've got everything, but I've got nothing
Without you

I've got your works, I've got my faith
I've got all the wine that you can make
I am the kiss of your betrayer
But I've got your grace on every layer
I've got everything, but I've got nothing
Without you

'cause you see it's all just a show
You either hate it or you don't
And only time will tell the difference
If you get it clearly or with interference

I've got the race, got the election
But win or lose, I've got protection
I found a lobbyist in the devil
But I got salvation in a rebel
I've got everything, but I've got nothing
Without you
