

It's Only 'cause You're Lonely

Deryl Dodd

It's only 'cause you're lonely, that you're wanting me
I'm just a way to get you through your misery
You don't need my love, i know you'll let me down
It's only 'cause you're lonely that you're comin' 'round

Girl, you're telling me
That he set you free
But that's nothing new
To a heart that's never true
What makes you think you can come running back so easily

It's only 'cause you're lonely, that you're wanting me
I'm just a way to get you through your misery
You don't need my love, i know you'll let me down
It's only 'cause you're lonely that you're comin' 'round

You say it just ain't right
To sleep alone at night
And how much you have missed
A lover's tender kiss

When will you understand my heart is free at last
It's only 'cause you're lonely, that you're wanting me
I'm just a way to get you through your misery
You don't need my love, i know you'll let me down
It's only 'cause you're lonely that you're comin' 'round
It's only 'cause you're lonely that you're comin' 'round
