Strong Enough

Trying to figure out Just where your life is goin' Can you see the picture In the purple sky? Silently you're walkin' But where are you headin'?

Questions terrorize, ah, yeah Space inside your mind, ah, yeah

Are you strong enough for love? Are you strong enough for peace? Are you strong enough to die? Tell me why

I'm strong enough for you Are you strong enough for me? 'Cause down, down in the city Love ain't always pretty

They try to take your soul and mind But you won't let them Never wear your destiny Outside your smile Always talk in riddles So you keep them guessing

Never criticize, ah, yeah Keep an open mind, ah, yeah

Are you strong enough for love? Are you strong enough for peace? Are you strong enough to die? Tell me why

I'm strong enough for you
Are you strong enough for me?
'Cause down, down in the city
Love ain't always pretty

They're holding out their hands Begging for some time Can you spare a shilling Can you spare a life? You try to give them food But they just refuse you

Deep down inside, ah, yeah You know you've tried

Are you strong enough for love? Are you strong enough for peace? Are you strong enough to die? Tell me why

I'm strong enough for you Are you strong enough for me? 'Cause down, down in the city Love ain't always pretty

'Cause are you strong enough? Strong enough for me? Strong enough Strong enough to see

Strong enough
Strong enough to be
'Cause down, down in the city, yeah
Love ain't always pretty

Strong enough for love? Are you strong enough for peace? Strong enough to die? Tell me why

Strong enough for me Oh, I'm strong enough for you 'Cause down, down in the city, yeah Love ain't always pretty, no

You're strong enough for me I'm strong enough for you You're strong enough to see That down, down in the city Yeah yeah, yeah yeah, yeah yeah Love ain't so pretty
