Porter of Hellgate

Desaster

the infernal first song of the new formation, we'll never stop because the final disaster is near !

now as you die pain comes quickly over you your mind is fulfilled with fear shadows of darkness apear in the light when your life is running away-DIE!

suffer now in darkness lonely and see living proud is nothing worth fall down when you realize the end on a path to hell into the fire-BURN!

memories of a life in pleasure and light say goodbye to the world beyond surruonded by shadows of darkness and cold your soul to the porter of hellgate-FALL!
