

Jean Is Dead

Descendents

Wake up early, mad at you
Got to school but where are you?
You should have told me
I should have known
But now you're gone
And I'm alone
Your mother told me
Last night on the phone
Now you're gone
Now I'm alone
I would have helped you
I would have done anything
I would have taken you with me
Or bought you a ring, but
Now you're gone and, I'm alone!
