

Behind These Walls

Desert Rose Band

We keep it all inside
Cause there's no where left to hide
Don't worry it's all right
Just close the door and lock it tight
Behind these walls teardrops fall

We play the part so well
Sometimes it's hard to tell
That we are both alone
We smile they all know
Behind these walls teardrops fall

We keep pretending it's not over
But the rivers overflowing
How long can we keep this going

The look in your eyes has gone
And we keep holding on
I guess we should confess
We could find happiness
Tear down these walls where teardrops fall

I guess we should confess
We could find happiness
Tear down these walls where teardrops fall
Behind these walls where teardrops fall
