

It Takes A Believer

Desert Rose Band

I don't take it for granted
Some things that money can't buy
If I'm left empty handed
I'll keep walking the line

If it's really forever
For a while I've got to pretend
We'll be walking together
In a dream that will never end

It takes a believer
To hold on to the truth
You tell me you've seen her
With somebody new

Don't tell me the story
Don't tell me the lie
It takes a believer
When the well runs dry

I hear the sound of her footsteps
I feel the presence within
Takes a lot of forgiveness
To fall in love again

It takes a believer
To hold on to the truth
You tell me you've seen her
With somebody new

Don't tell me the story
Don't tell me the lie
It takes a believer
When the well runs dry

Don't tell me the story
Don't tell me the lie
It takes a believer
When the well runs dry

It takes a believer
It takes a believer
