

Undying Love

Desert Rose Band

How many lovers
In lifetimes gone
Like clothing that we wear
Long after it's worn out with love
Undying love, undying love

Life had no meaning
Till I gave you mine
Now the red rose and green briar
Have entwined with love
Undying love, undying love

The light in the window
Is keeping us warm
Inside my heart
Is a raging storm of love
Undying love, undying love, undying love
