

Will This Be The Day

Desert Rose Band

She used to cry just a little each day she used to feel so alone and betrayed
And she won't feel sorry for the rest of her life this just might be the day
This just might be the day
Here on this lonely afternoon the strangest feeling in the room
Will I remember this how it feels right now this just might be the day
This just might be the day
Will this be the day maybe this is the day I'll remember
Will this be the way maybe this is the way I'll remember
When she took my hand and whispered to me we can make it
And I looked in her eyes and said nothing can take you away
Oh I've got to believe in the resurrecting power for me
It can heal your pain it can roll you away this just might be the day
This just might be the day
Will this be the day...
Will this be the day...
Will this be the day...
