

Center of It All

Desperation Band

If I have You and nothing else
I have everything
If I have everything but You
I have nothing

I'm letting go
I'm letting go of me
I'm taking hold of You

I'm losing myself and finding You
All I ever need
You are my life every breath
You satisfy me

You are the center of it all
You are the savior of my soul
You are the source of life how could I not cry Lord
You are the hope of greatest price
Jesus alone be lifted high
You are the source of life
You're the center of it all

You are the first and You're the last
You are everything
I count it all loss for without You
I am nothing

My heart thirst for You alone
My heart thirst for You alone
My heart thirst for You alone
My eyes look to You and only You
My soul longs for You and only You
My heart thirst for You alone
