

Comeback

Destination Anywhere

Everything's the same
Everything went wrong
Nothing to expect and
Nothing to hold on
We don't know what will be
We don't know the past
I don't think we will see
We're not going to rest

I don't want to go on
Oh I want to change
I will catch my breath
To reenter the stage

Because nothing is the same
When you saw your own age

Our destination is anywhere
Our friends are not
What they think they were
And I would like
To see you dance now

I never was ashamed
I always was in time
You can call me stupid
And call me out of line
We don't know what will be
We don't know the past
I don't want to give up
It is just

I don't want to go on...
