

March for you

Destination Anywhere

He was a man who had a fight
He was a man who knew what's good and right
And now he goes into the light
On his last journey and we say goodbye, goodbye
Goodbye, goodbye

No one had enemies and friends
As many as he had, his time he spent
For all those enemies and friends
Who have to realize to god he went, he went
He went, he went

So let us march for you old friend, old friend
Let us march for you old friend
So let us march for you old friend, old friend
Let us march for you old friend

Oh and this man engraved on me
Like he engraved on everybody else
Oh and I wish you could have seen
How moving this man was before he left, he left
He left, he left

So let us march for you old friend, old friend
Let us march for you old friend
So let us march for you old friend, old friend
Let us march for you old friend

So let us march for you old friend, old friend
Let us march for you old friend
So let us march for you old friend, old friend
Let us march for you old friend
