

Am I So Blind

Destine

Are you with me, are you with me..

With my eyes open wide
There's nothing left for us to see
You'll be nothing but a memory (nothing but a dream)
With my hands around you tight
Is it worth the irony
Oh tell me are you listening
To me, to me

Hey are you with me
I wanna see that hope is in your eyes
From time to time it's in my mind
Am I so blind
Hey are you with me
I wanna tell the true words from your lies
From time to time it's in my mind
Am I so blind

With your hands behind your back
It's impossible to see
That you could just be my worst enemy (nothing's what it seems)
Is it wisdom that I lack
Or just some clarity
Oh tell me are you listening
To me
As we're closing in on what we think is right
Try to prove me wrong this time

Hey are you with me
I wanna see that hope is in your eyes
From time to time it's in my mind
Am I so blind
Hey are you with me
I wanna tell the true words from your lies
From time to time it's in my mind
Am I so blind
Am I so blind
Am I so blind
Am I so blind

With my eyes open wide
There's nothing left for us to see
Tell me are you listening
Hey are you with me
I wanna see that hope is in your eyes
From time to time it's in my mind
Am I so blind
Hey are you with me
I wanna tell the true words from your lies
From time to time it's in my mind
Am I so blind

Are you with me, are you with me..
