

In Your Arms

Destine

Slowly
I take the fall
The city lights don't comfort me at all
Show me
Can you recall
What got me climbing up the walls
I'm out of patience
I'm still waiting on
A brand new break of dawn

O o oh
Now we're going underground
And my hands are shakin'
O o oh
I can't believe we're going down
I can hear the sirens sound
From way too far
And I'm dying in your arms
In your arms

If only
My thoughts were real
I could go back but time is standing still
In this scene
The frames show
I'm losing track and wait 'till there's no
Heartbeat left
To take me back to you
To take me back to you

If only I could ever
Change what's been done
Make it last forever
Oh it keeps me warm
I know that I could never
Stay in your arms
