

Stars

Destine

Another day and I am slowly moving on to you Going nowhere became a way to pass the time
It might be bittersweet, I try to shake it off my mind
You know theres something that Id really like to say
Oh all along I am tryin to turn the tide
If only I knew of a way to leave it all behind

Is this what we need
even if this will not mean 'Always'?
Yeah well make wrongs right,
you and me tonight, its time.
The stars seem right, tonight.

Another day and I am barely hangin on to you Nothing but hesitation swiftly passes by yeah
If only I knew of a way to shake it off my mind
Off my mind

Is this what we need
even if this will not mean 'Always'?
Yeah well make wrongs right,
you and me tonight, its time.
The stars seem right.

Is this what we need
even if this will not mean
Tonight, its deep down in our souls
As long as hope lives inside
The stars seem right tonight

You know there's something that I'd really like to say
Oh all along I am tryin to turn the tide
If only I knew of a way to leave it all behind (to leave it all behind)

Is this what we need
even if this will not mean 'Always'?
Yeah well make wrongs right,
you and me tonight, its time.
The stars seem right.
Is this what we need
even if this will not mean (what we need even if this will not mean)
Is this what we need
even if this will not mean
The stars seem right tonight
