Negative Eyes Control

Destinity

This empty shell cares no longer for life Slowly replacing the flesh with steel No one can tell you there what is wrong No one knows where your heart belongs...

No truth has been issued from a mask that you betrayed... Forever betrayed and forever slaved A catatonic hibernation of your mind

This is the negative eyes factory! This is the negative eyes control! You turn away all senses of guilt!

A fuckin' slaved control!

A malignant grin on the face of sin

The sense of horror in your vicious eyes

The scent of inner fear fills your new face made by the fear

The scent of your witness fills your new dark way to believe

No truth has been issued from a mask that you betrayed... Forever betrayed and forever slaved A catatonic hibernation of your mind

Negative eyes control!
