

Tell Me

Destiny's Child

Why dont you just admit it
Cause I dont need your graditude
And dont you try to hide it
Just tell me the truth
I cant go on this way looking for something that isnt there
Should I be on my way
Because I need a reason for this mess

Tell me if you dont love me anymore
Just tell me, if you dont care bout me anymore
Just tell me, if you dont want it, just tell me (Tell me)

I never thought this day would come

But a test of love I need from you
Honesty's always seen through eyes
I wish you would believe Im giving you my all but it's not pleasing (you're distant heart
If you respect my love you'll hear my plea

Tell me if you dont love me anymore
Just tell me, if you dont care bout me anymore
Just tell me, if you dont want it, just tell me (Tell me)

Do do do do do do do do la la la la la la la la

Tell me if you dont love me anymore
Just tell me, if you dont care bout me anymore
Just tell me, if you dont want it, just tell me (Tell me)
