

My Swagger Has A First Name

Destroy Rebuild Until God Shows

Your weakness
But if you like to fight
This is the last time
This is the last time

Dried up and away
With discerning mental love affairs
I'd rather stick with any number of these played-out fairy tales and Moments of your (yellow shining)
Spending your time in an hiding
Making out the reasons why
The (life your seen) the public eye

With everything you try,
Well it's never good enough

Oh! These friends die easy
Oh! Just disappear
Oh! Well, my best friend,
I knew these lives would end up here [x2]
..

Your weakness
But if you like to fight
This is the last time
This is your last time

If I could tell you any and everything
Don't ask, just tell, like I should,
Like I know you never could and
Moments come out of hiding
(Spitting weakness to colors) shining
The dark you see, the reason why
You fail at everything you try

With everything you are,
Well it's never good enough

Oh! These friends die easy
Oh! Just disappear
Oh! Well, my best friend,
I knew these lives would end up here [x2]

I knew these lives would end up here

So then
And I won't even say good-bye
And I won't even say good-bye [x2]

Oh! These friends die easy
Oh! Just disappear
Oh! Well, my best friend,
I knew these lives would end up here [x2]

I knew these lives would end up here..
