

Mad Foxes

Destroyer

Mad foxes, look, I saw them all
And I wanted all of them
Berlin is for lovers
It will never fall, but you can and you will
Any hope for a love can be killed when death waits for us, silently, to be free
Saying your body is bad, but your mind is okay
She was never gonna go there anyway, any more
Who exactly do you think you're accessing
When you're being so community-minded?
Look, they took us from behind, and said
Hey, that shit's for sharing
And I love what you're wearing
Where'd you get it, anyway? And what'd you pay?
We held up our vile end
