

Bestial Invasion

Destruction

early morning, mankind sleeps there's a roaring in the air inpenetrable fog

thunder rolls and lightning strikes hell storms ,rush over the earth but there's no rain

hell storms ,rush over the earth

fog cleared up, people scream they won't believe that the evil takes control

hell storms ,rush over the earth

your time is out, obsession spreads death rules, satans law is in command jesus christ exists no longer you better pray to the new lord cause he's almighty obey him
