

Push Me Off the Windowsill

Destruction

I expected heaven
But now I'm on TV
No living god to judge my sins
Just astonished stupidity
Staring at me - staring at me
I expected freedom
I expected peace

An exhibitionist whore
On the 11th floor
Come on, you'll get some more
Just watch it 'til the end
I was already dead
Here come the slow motion
Push me once again

I expected freedom, I expected peace
But now I want for a commercial break
To find myself release
5 minutes of peace - 5 minutes of peace
I expected heaven
But I found reality

An exhibitionist whore
On the 11th floor
Come on, you'll get some more
Just watch it 'til the end
I was already dead
Here come the slow motion
Push me once again

Real blood - real tears
Fucked up reality
"Do you want to see me die?"

I expected silence, a place without a sound
Place your cameras all around
To shoot my body down
Shattered on the ground
I expected silence
But even death disappoints me now

There is some blood to spill
Push me off the windowsill
To prove that looks can kill
Watch it 'till the end
This is reality
Just what you want to see
Your fun - your misery
Push me once again
