

The Birth / Fata Sidus Oritur / One of Us Must Die

Dethklok

Fata Sidus Oritur
Fata Sidus Oritur
Fata Sidus Oritur
Fata Sidus Oritur

Dethklok has disbanded
One of them was taken
We look to the skies to watch a new star awaken...

Oh, the Doomstar is born, oh the deathly light
And the star will turn to blood on this prophet's night
And the Prophecy has warned us that one of us must die...
Before this is all over... one of us must die!

DoomSTAR!
DoomSTAR!

There was a time when the five of them were just a band, but that was yesterday!
So innocent of this church and all its prophecies, but then they took him away!
The times have changed
The air's begun to taste of metal
The whales they chant
A constant warning
They keep singing
And repeating

One of Us Must Die!
One of Us Must DIE!

Bow before the Doomstar, Klok keeps ticking further!

Life on Earth will be eclipsed
The looming Metalocalypse!

One of you must die!
One of you must die!

Dethklok, they must be rejoined
Evil, it must be destroyed
No more apathetic stoics
They can learn to be heroic
Write the song that will be our salvation...
