

Fallen Stone

Deuce

I feel the pressure of my thoughts
And all that I have fought
Confusing

My focus has began to zoom
In you I found this room
Im' fading away

Now I can see
You've gone away
To find me alone
It's so hard to hold on

Now I can see
You've gone away
To see me this way
It's so hard
It's so hard
It's so hard to hold on

And my mind has turned around
But still I hear no sound
Confusing

The answers still dont seem so clear
In this I've always feared
I'mm fading away

Now I can see
You've gone away
To find me alone
It's so hard
It's so hard
It's so hard to hold on
