

Just one kiss, a memory
Accumulate your history
Understand a little more
The aftermath of before

Just a moment lost in time
Pressing pause is time defined
Just a moment lost on you
Pressing play is all that you can do

Future plans and secrecy
Tentalizing you and me
If we're getting what we want
Are we what we need to be

Just a moment lost in time
Unrepeating, intertwined
Like a moment lost on you
You throw away everything that's new

Is it all you got for your money
All you got, are you getting enough
Cause you follow the herd but you'd rather be
Leading the ranks of a brand new breed

Are you getting enough for you money
And how does it feel now to be free

Just one crush, the very last
To lead you through that wall of glass
Feel the power of the now
You know the now last can never last

Just a moment lost in time
Pressing pause is time defined
Just a moment lost on you
Pressing play is all that you can do

You live in a constant now again

Is it all you got for your money
All you got, are you getting enough
Cause you follow the herd but you'd rather be
Leading the ranks of a brand new breed
Are you getting enough for your money
And how does it feel now to be free

And so we go round and round again
And for the magic of what could be
We live in a constant now again
