

One Advice, Space

dEUS

Wasted and wounded, erased with the night
One man's conviction is another man's lie
I said you could find me where the nighthawks fly
And I'll be there a while, yes I'll be there a while.

Dustpaper coupons, there's a guy by the door
He said: "What makes me quit makes you go back for more".
This place isn't real man, this girl is a whore
Watch me fall to the floor, but I'll go back for more.

Sometimes I wander

So I finally found you, and I lost you to love
No it sure wasn't this I was... thinkin' of Put your silhouette on me and your sweetness above
And I can't get enough, no I can't get enough.

Wasted and wounded, this ain't no way to die
One man's cold turkey is another man's high
I said you could find me where the nighthawks fly
And I'll be there a while, yes I'll be there a while.

Sometimes I wander

Down on the floor, got a closer look at hell
You see, somebody pushed me, I just pretended that I fell.
I said that I adored you, but I could never tell
For all that I know I'll be gone when you go.

Music went through you and took you to a place
There ain't no doubt you'll find a welcoming embrace
I said that I loved you, another hawk in space
And you'll be there for a while and I'll be there for a while

Finding my own inarticulate prose
Weirding out strangers and laughing at those Jaundiced and jaded postured and posed
Not that we're special, it's just that we're Closing in on a place where we might get to be Living real people regularly
Send you some stuff and be good like you asked
Must promise remember the sixth and the last
