

Baby

Devendra Banhart

Baby

I finally know what I'm going after
I'm learning to let in all the laughter
Holy Moley you're so funnny
You Crack me up, you crack me up

Look out for dreams that keep returning
'Cause magic ain't no hand-me-down yearning
You feel it, you want it, the way I want you babe

Traveling by choo-choo train
We know where we just don't know when
Like some everlasting onion peeled by love

Never heard a better bad joke said out loud
You flip-flop and I wild out
Can you believe it
I can't believe it but it's true

You're giving eighty billion years of giggling
A whole new world to live in
But this one's real, this one's real, this one's real

Like a bow tied Kangaroo
You be one and I'll be one too
We play it goofy or we play it cool

Everything that happened
You know it don't mean a thing to us
'Cause so much is gonna happen
Because

You showed me a sunset overflowing
But who cares where it's going
As long as you're next to me
