

All of the sweet things
That you say to me
Tonight I love you
And tomorrow we'll see

It ain't the end of the world
But it ain't the start of a new one
It ain't a hard card to play
When from the get-go you won

We're full of action
Un-acted upon
We are I just don't know
How to do this full on

Still it ain't the end of the world
But it ain't the start of a new one
I'm no Lincoln Zapatone
Just wanna keep what I can't own

It's no good, it's no good, it's no good
I don't understand and that's well understood

I see an actor
Chase around my baby
All of the sweet, sweet things
That you never save me

Still it ain't the end of the world
But it ain't the start of a new one
We get the news bit by bit
But not the whole of it
