

Gemini Is The Snake

Devian

Death's in the making, the architect of doom opens your tomb Cloaked in the dark, the amputation of God is on earth to draw some blood
Deep in wilderness pain shows a shimmering light
A madness to behold
Liars in wait chime damnation's bell, venom-fangs unwithheld
A tongue God's forgot
An ancient master-plot, bidding-time - souls will rot
Deep in wilderness pain shows a shimmering light
A madness to behold

Evil death damnation's breath, faces of a carnage at the elders
Scent of fear through atmosphere - nefarious catalyst

The sin is in
Born in lust - turn to dust
Born in pain - life in vain, die insane

Cruel side, wolves allied - screaming ride the snake through seas on torment Confront a death, smile your last breath - life hurts more than demise

The sin is in
Born in lust - turn to dust
Born in pain - life in vain, die insane

No fear - wreathed in flames we walk - Gemini
No fear - this storm will bear our mark - Gemini
Is the snake

Gemini

Evil death damnation's breath, the mad they dance in a ring of fire
Death you bring, devils sing - "You are death"

The sin is in
Born in lust - born in pain, die insane

No fear - wreathed in flames we walk - Gemini
No fear - this storm will bear our mark - Gemini
