

Man In Black

Devil Doll

Babe I know ya sold your soul hanging on the edge of rock n' roll

And all you ever wanted was to find your way home

So when you look into my eyes does it really come as a surprise

That you now know that you are not alone

Cause you can't stand to stare into the sun

Cause I am your only one

And the fun has just begun

Step up or you will have to stand in line

If you forfeit your time with me oh baby

Babe I know ya sold your soul

And I hope you get it back from so and so

But I am afraid he wants me to take your place

Cause I have been to the other side

And I barely made it out alive

I'd kill for you but stay out of my way

You be my man in black

I 'll be your angel in white

With your hand full of shadows

And my fists full of light

You grab your guns

I'll grab the sun

And we'll both take them out one by one

And I won't stop kissing you until were done
