

Queen Of The Road

Devil Doll

My church is the open road
It's me, God and the highway.

She said I don't have time to fall in love
Don't think I'll stay if push comes to shove
Cause I got one thing on my mind to do
And it may or may not include you.

Don't call me baby cause you don't know me
I am a woman in every degree
I'll make you tremble, I'll make you sweat
You ain't seen nothing yet.

At the end of the day
It's me, God and the highway
It's always been that way.

I'm the queen of the fucking road
I'll pass you by if you go too slow
Cause I won't wait for no man
I've got a good excuse:
I don't give a damn.

At the end of the day
It's me, God and the highway
It's always been that way.
