Some Friend

Devil Sold His Soul

You are here in my heart Why won't you see me?
I can't hate you

I trusted you
You lied to me, betrayed me
How could you make me choose
Between us and you?
And then you treated me like an enemy
Then one day, you cut me out
Erased me from your life
It was like you have died
But I still see you

I was your friend Some friend you turned out to be I wish I had never befriended you

And now you talk down about me Trying to change me into someone else To erase your guilt
