Turn your tired eyes home, put the sword to stone Death by boredom, the rich man bears the burden That the poor man seeks to chase
The chase is certain

Did not see it coming, better stand for something They're wicked as they come, break the cycle Racing down the flames, while building the coffins Iron unbroken, break the cycle

It's a bitter pill, such a bitter pill to swallow (2x)

I've broke the cycle, after all these years Death by boredom, not afraid to reveal What the world is sensing, the chase is certain

Did not see it coming, better stand for something They're wicked as they come, break the cycle Racing down the flames, while building the coffins Iron unbroken, break the cycle

It's a bitter pill, such a bitter pill to swallow (2x)

Silence is my companion

With a pride it's going worldwide It's spreading worldwide Across the great divide (2x)

Healer, believer
On the bended knee, when push comes to shove
Healer, believer
Time and time again, you push me too far

It's a bitter pill, such a bitter pill to swallow
It's a bitter pill, such a bitter pill to swallow
It's a bitter pill
Such a bitter pill
It's a bitter pill, such a bitter pill to swallow
