

These Fighting Words

DevilDriver

Pleading your case while taking the eternal high ground

...

Havoc on the airwaves I'm listening
Don't see any daylight glistening
Long for the home, I left yesterday
Those memories slowly decay

Two highways, the fork in the road
Which one to take? Through the middle they rode

These fighting words deserve exile, banished
Unbelievable, unbelievable, invincible, right

Fucking feast for the eyes
Believe now, beast killer arise
In my opinion this dominion is mine
Banished, days gone awry

These fighting words deserve exile, banished
Unbelievable, unbelievable, invincible
These fighting words deserve exile, banished
Unbelievable, unbelievable, invincible

These fighting words deserve exile, banished
Unbelievable, unbelievable, invincible
These fighting words deserve exile, banished
Unbelievable, unbelievable, invincible

Damn, goddamn invincible
Goddamn invincible, unbelievable
