These Fighting Words

DevilDriver

Pleading your case while taking the eternal high ground

Havoc on the airwaves I'm listening Don't see any daylight glistening Long for the home, I left yesterday Those memories slowly decay

Two highways, the fork in the road Which one to take? Through the middle they rode

These fighting words deserve exile, banished Unbelievable, unbelievable, invincible, right

Fucking feast for the eyes Believe now, beast killer arise In my opinion this dominion is mine Banished, days gone awry

These fighting words deserve exile, banished Unbelievable, unbelievable, invincible These fighting words deserve exile, banished Unbelievable, unbelievable, invincible

These fighting words deserve exile, banished Unbelievable, unbelievable, invincible These fighting words deserve exile, banished Unbelievable, unbelievable, invincible

Damn, goddamn invincible Goddamn invincible, unbelievable
