

Winter Kills

DevilDriver

This is haunted, haunted, haunted
This is haunted
This is haunted, haunted, haunted
This is haunted

Growing up threw it off my back, it's a fact
Without this (ladder?) there's no remedy for you
I don't rest and I don't sleep without one eye on faith
No regret, never look (at...justice forgets?)

Distance and time pissing oceans away
And time just can't relate to you
Distance and time there's a canyon so wide
Not watching you die (on the fire strewn?)

Look at me talk to you
Around this newness is truth
Love me like and join the few
This is haunted

Love, faith where your angels fly
But you're living a lie
And I
Am not the evil

Mark my words, there'll be a change in the guard
There's frost on the sill so now winter kills
Keep this in mind while you're waiting for that sign
There's frost on the sill so now winter kills

(there ain't no sense of fiction?)
It's a new religion
I see your half assed light
Better watch your back at night

I don't rest and I don't sleep
Without one eye on faith
Don't regret, never forget

Like a spark into your heartache
Did you quorum, separate from
Still they preyed
Split your skull just for fun, (not run?)
We'll be here til the job is done
Til the job is done!
Split your skull just for

Separate bones, blow your mind
To separate bones

Mark my words! there'll be a change in the guard!
Shrouded in darkness, a chill in the air
(the heaven swings open?)
Winter kills!

I could (stomp you til your heat bleeds?)
