

The Seven Virtues of Divine

Devilyn

The seven virtues divine
Making human close to god

Follow these virtues
The divine seven

Hate:
The primal one
'Tis the fuel
Hate is what makes the human differ(ent)
From the other beings
Ever grown in or trodden the earth

Fear:
Hate's ally
This is what makes us strong
It gives the power to perform the evil

War: What would the man become without war?
It devours many to give the power to many

Control:
The might and reign
Its intrication exists
Does exist
In order to satiate ones with others collapse

Subordination:
'Til you become strong
Enough you have to obey
The institutions of faith and power

Revenge:
The sweetness of persistence
The memory of our race
The reason to stay alive

Envy:
No rapture for us
No rapture of possessing
Let's live by all that belongs to others

And so in short I depict
The race we have replaced,
My dear rats