

Right Now

Devin the Dude

Once Upon the wings of love I dashed up on the craft wrinkled foreheads greet me, but I'm high therefore I laugh attendants rush me, to check my bags they said "hurry, cuz we 15 minutes behind we have one seat left and its way in the back it shouldnt be too hard to find, go sit down." I said aiite bitch, but I said it kinda low It won't no problem go towards the back I go had a little weed on me didn't want it to show some helicopter took my patna 3 months to grow so, I slid to the rear to find my chair Hey pretty girl is this my chair here? the key Y) didn't even crack a smile She smelt my black and Mild she think I be actin wild and she refused to move her purse out the little little seat freak trying to get the dude to curse wanted a nigga to rant and rave just because of my color, thinkin I cant behave I said, "Pardon me ma'am, excuse me miss But there's no reason for you to be pissed I done payed my dues, payed my bills and fees Just wanna sit by the window here while I'm feeling the breeze" caise

Right now I feel so good that I won't let nothin or nobody bring me down cant wait until the pilot finally levitate trying to find a way to feel just like this way everyday

Breezier, Breezier
Breezier, Breezier
Breezier, Breezier

Attendants walked the asles as if we were in some type of camp I seen all my belongings, big and small things disappearing underneath on ramp man, I started feeling kinda wicked should have never bought a ticket put on my seat belt in case we land in shit creek I had to grit me teeth but then things kinda felt in place I couldnt wait, broke out my big bag put it on the tray table wheels start rolling, table wouldnt stay stable Waiter walked up and said do you want a beer?
I said yeah, he got happy start doing a cheer He gave a bag of nuts to the nigga next in line Put on a gas mask and pointed to the exit sign I'm checkin it odd, I'm feeling the breeze and everybody on the plane lookin at me, cause

Right now I feel so good that I
won't let nothin or nobody bring me down
cant wait until the pilot finally levitate tryin to find a way to feel just like this everyday

Breezier, Breezier
The weather started getting rough and the big ass plane shook I started trippin, cause everybody was flippin and dippin and even hiding pocket books from crooks I'm like look I know its kinda scary, its a long way down you should have had your shit together when you was on the ground aint no time for whining and crying about dying cause when its your time, its your time, but right now I'm feel so Right now I feel so good that I won't let nothin or nobody bring me down

trying to find a way to feel just like this everyday
