

A New Reign

Devin Townsend Project

Reign, far from the river
Reign, far from the garden, oh...

He won't suffer
I'm underwater
I'll hold you

So while you cry, my love
I never wanted sorrow or pain
Yet here we are again!

He won't suffer,
I'm underwater
I'll hold you.

Now why'd you die on me?
No words will come now.

Reign, far from the river
Reign, far from the garden, oh...

WHERE DID YOU GO?

I never wanted to be in this place, where you had to leave me cold
I never wanted to be in this place, did you have to leave me cold?

Reign, far from the river (please release me)
Reign, far from the garden, oh...

You won't suffer

You won't suffer
While underwater
I'll hold you

So why'd you cry, my love
I never wanted sorrow or pain
Yet here we are!

I will never let you leave my mind
