

Failure

Devin Townsend Project

Do you know you're forgiven all the way now?
Follow me and you will see...
There's no way out
Save me, or save her...I'm alone

Could have been a martyr, you fool...you failure.

I won't fear this, I want to play for the world
All these fears go alone.

I won't fear this, I want to play for the world
All these fears go alone.
