

Cry Forever

Devin Townsend

So try out the ways to make amend
You hide away from lies
So you walked away, so you've made amends
You fly away

Only you will want to know your truth (...and the lies)

Ooh, such triumphant ways to make the ends
Come together now
Yes we walked away, yes we made amends
But you'll never FLY AGAIN!!!

So you cry for all to see
So your heart's on fire
So you cry for all to see
You lie
Cry Forever

So you cry for all to see
So your heart's on fire
So you cry for all to see
So your heart's on fire
So you cry for all to see
You lie
Cry Forever
You lie
Cry Forever
