

Go and know the waterfall of time
Take a minute of your precious time
Glowing in radiant lines
Oceans of radiant lives...
...but you're mine
...you're mine!

All the world is rolling on in time
Takes a toll on all our waiting minds
Go away until the planets are aligned?
Just go and take your moment till you're fine
In time...in time!

Don't speak a word, remember what you've heard and all our lives
All our lives
Don't speak a word, remember what you've heard and all..

Go now with your fallen, crumbling find
See now how the righteous closes open minds
Ah now, fall with them?
Because HEAVEN KNOWS YOU'LL TRY UNTIL YOU'LL WIN.
...but try! ...you might find:

Heaven is the madness in our minds
Because heaven isn't silent all the time
I'll be there waiting in line...
