

Ih-Ah!

Devin Townsend

As everything in life, comes together now
I need your mind
And everything is light, I remember now
I see you rise.
And all the lonely things, seem to want to change
I'll sleep on it tonight.
Ih-ah!
We don't even understand
Something's going on
We don't even understand
So how could this be wrong... ah!
Ih-ah!
I'm so in love with you
...how could I?
Ever be untrue.
Am I with you?
With everything I do.
God I love you.
I love you...
We don't even understand
Something's going on
We don't even understand
So how could we be wrong
We don't know or care
Somethings always there
We see it's in own our hands,
But we just don't understand.
