

Quiet Riot

Devin Townsend

I wait for the pain
It always comes again
And I don't know why...
And I don't care why anymore.
Saved in the end
By a long lost friend
And I don't know why
And I don't care why anymore.

And the rain it keeps on coming
And the pain it keeps at bay for another day
Home.

So thank you Jean Michael
I'm on my way to hell
And I don't know why
But I don't care why anymore.
