

Faster And Faster

Devo

Faster, faster

In this hour of darkness
Just before I say goodbye
Smokin' teflon cigarettes
I chew my cyanide chlorettes

I write down a fake confession
And I send it off to you
You did it

Swim up the river
Shoots on my head
Bury the hatchet
In the fertile riverbed

Drove my car over a cliff
Saw myself lyin' dead
They tortured me
With the cable TV

In this hour of darkness
Everything's turned gray
Now it's time for all good things
To pass away

Don't ask me why, why, why
We all must go, go, go, go, go
You did it faster

Now the tears run from my eyes
But it seems like there's no running from the lies
My heart, my poor heart plays tricks on my mind
