

Man Turned Inside Out

Devo

If you ever had a clue
You never acted like you knew
When you took away the reasons
And you chopped my heart in two
Once you start to doubt
When you don't know what it's about
It's time to read the warning signs
Of a man turned inside out

For a guy needs a good reason
Something to prod him on
When you chopped me up like liver
It all started going wrong

So I bought a fiberglass helmet and
Some goggles to match
I'm a human bullet baby
And you haven't seen the last
Of a man turned inside out
I'm a man turned inside out

So I got myself a position
And I'm working my way up
Took a three way lucky number
Now I'm heading to the top
Once you start to doubt
When you don't know what it's about
It's time to read the warning signs
Of a man turned inside out
