

Tragedy

DeVotchKa

The end, it shouldn't end like this it's the bottle she is merciless she's stringing me along

And how could such a palace house deceit and malice
there's something wrong here
there's something wrong here

As the words were chosen
his heart was frozen
his soul had spoken
but it sounded all twisted and broken

Years and years ago they delivered the final blow and suddenly his life ain't worth a damn

There were ghosts and they lit up this town but they left when they sold off the underground we ain't welcome here no more

I, I won't let you down it's my first day back in town but my skin is six feet underground and everything is different now

she's stringing me along again
