

Unleash The Carnivores

Devourment

Rising, from the depths of filth the worms will grub this fucking world Scavenging for flesh Filthy rotten
Creatures stalk consume the dead Rabid beasts will tear the skin of all the scumbags that dwell among us Spewing spit from savage jaws that tear the limbs from tortured bodies Screaming masses destined to be strewn among splattered seas of entrails Feasting are these ruthless beasts that crawled from the darkest pits of hell

The bodies pile in a filthy sea of blood Disease and scum infect the half dead victims Bleeding from their eyes, festering demise lifeless Blistering and torn, such a vision of suffering hell, dead

Tearing through humanity Fiercely devouring Munching on shattered bones Mutilating victims
Defecating human pieces Scattering rotten
The putrid beast's hunger dies never Commencing the slaughter, beasts hunting fodder, carried before being eaten alive Dripping with sewage, covered in fluid, air becomes putrid, life has died World population, due for termination, human liquidation, the carnivores thrive A new world of chaos, a wasteland of ruin, iniquities ravaged, god has died

Corpses that fill the streets will nourish the carnivore's lust for meat Whilst scavenging carrion endlessly and spew the death on society Corpses that fill the streets will nourish the carnivore's lust for meat Whilst scavenging carrion endlessly and spew the death on society
