Save Me

Dexter Freebish

Some days I need to change my world
One desire fills this empty void
Tonight I wanna be saved by you
I wanna be lost in you

I've fallen from the tops of mountains to the ground
I've shaken off the sands of time, marched to the sound
When the clock runs out, and there's no doubt, I feel so far fr om home
When the lies get worse, I'll just get hurt, I'll find myself a lone
Tonight I wanna be saved by you
I wanna be lost in you

Sometimes when I get tired
I wanna be alone
The days pass uninspired
I sleep like a stone
It's better when I'm awake
